

Szara Willa

The Szara Willa hotel is a modern, three-star hotel located in the very heart of Opole, which means that all attractions are within arm's reach. The building's modern architecture harmonises perfectly with its classically elegant interior, which is reminiscent of the colonial style. Its facilities include a bowling alley, restaurant, fitness club, children's club, sauna, tanning beds and both an underground and outdoor car park. Guests can enjoy a sense of safety, comfort and high class, as well as high-quality entertainment. Szara Willa is only a 5-minute walk away from the Market Square, and is located in direct vicinity of the Jan Kochanowski Theatre and one of the largest shopping centres in the city - Solaris, which also houses a Helios cinema.
