The Opole Beer Festival is a party event in the centre of the city. It opens with a tapping ceremony and lasts an entire weekend. You can try all kinds of flavours during the event! Several dozen types of beer are served there every year: classic, honey, strawberry, caramel, half-and-half – both craft and regional. Beers from America, Czech Republic, Slovakia and Belgium can be tasted at the festival. You can also expect great food served by Opole restaurateurs, such as delicious pork knuckle, bread with lard and gherkin, as well as pastries, snacks and more. You can also learn how to brew your own delicious beer!

Cabaret performances make for great entertainment, and there is a whole lot of music to have fun to. The festival takes place between September and October, inside a nearly one thousand square metre tent.
